

Desert & Hope

Janelle Hallman, MA

Desert Hope is a non-profit organization founded by Janelle Hallman. This ministry provides retreats and conferences that are of a religious, pastoral, and educational nature designed for those seeking to learn and be renewed, equipped and strengthened in their relationship with God, spouse, children, friends, and others. Director, Janelle Hallman, is a popular national and international speaker and teacher who specializes in homosexuality and emotional dependencies. Her passion is to share God's word in a way that speaks to the deepest needs of the human heart. She recently released a groundbreaking book entitled The Heart of Female Same-Sex Attraction. Janelle is an adjunct professor at Denver Seminary and Colorado Christian University. She is also the clinical director of Janelle Hallman and Associates, a Christian counseling center. Over the years she has been involved with Exodus International, Evergreen, and Courage.
